Toronto Stock Exchange Hosts Market Close Ceremony at The MoneyShow Toronto

MoneyShow and its founder, chair & CEO, Kim Githler celebrate The All-Stars of Options Trading

SARASOTA, FL, September 14, 2016 –The MoneyShow—the world’s leading producer of financial tradeshows and cruises—has been honored with an invitation, Friday, September 16 at 4:00 pm EST, from the TSX to close the market celebrating The All-Stars of Options Trading event during The MoneyShow Toronto, being held at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre, September 16-17, 2016.

In association with TMX Group and its wholly-owned equities and derivatives marketplaces, Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) and Montréal Exchange (MX), The All-Stars of Options Trading event brings together some of the greatest educators, thought leaders, and market experts from leading financial service companies who will share their perspectives and recommendations with more than 2,000 high-net worth investors and traders in attendance. Admission to the conference is free and will have a heavy focus on investing and trading strategies with sessions led by financial industry experts including Peter Hodson, Rob Carrick, Tom Sosnoff, and Mark Mills.

“We are thrilled that our partners at Toronto Stock Exchange and Montréal Exchange have invited MoneyShow to close the market. It is truly an honor to be associated with Canada’s leading markets and celebrate the importance of education for investors and traders,” says chair and CEO Kim Githler.

MoneyShow has a 35-year history of creating educational events that combine the world's leading investing and trading experts together with individual investors and active traders in face-to-face and online forums. Select presentations from The MoneyShow Toronto will be available through The MoneyShow's Virtual Event, <http://www.torontovirtualevent.com>, live September 16-17, and on demand until October 6.
